

Democratic Republic of Ramona Property

Republic of Ramona Laws

- No intentionally harming you fellow citizens; physically or emotionally.
- No intentionally hacking or highjacking technological equipment without the permission of the leader.
- Ministers who are allegedly corrupted (with evidence) will be tried in court. If they are found guilty they will be revoked of their position.
  - Ministers who are found politically corrupt cannot run for another term after their removal.
  - Only Republic members who have been in the Republic for a minimum of two months can run in an election.
  - Citizens who are guilty of crimes may not be able to run in an election depending on the severity of their crime.
- All citizens must take the pledge of allegiance and sign documents to be citizens
- If someone breaks these laws, they can be taken to court
  - Any Republic member (who is not involved in the court case in any other way) can serve as the lawyer for the defendant or plaintiff.